

Jamieson: Life Member/Retired Educator

Soror Carolyne Jamieson became an Ivy Beyond the Wall on August 13, 2011. As a life member, she participated in activities with Nu Iota Omega Chapter in Maitland, Florida and Alpha Xi Omega Chapter in Houston, Texas. She was initiated at Bethune Cookman College, where she graduated in 1969 with a degree in Business Education. She earned her Master's Degree in Education in 1976 from the University of Central Florida.

After 30 years of employment with Orange County Public Schools (OCPS), Soror Carolyne retired in 2001. Proceeding her retirement, she resumed teaching in the Houston Independent School District at Hartman Middle School. Following this endeavor, she returned to her home town where she began teaching once again for OCPS at Oak Ridge High School until her second retirement in 2007. She leaves to celebrate her life and cherish her memories: one sister (Sandra) three brothers (Joseph Jr., Albert, and Rudy), two daughters (Carla Tribue Williams and Soror Gineen Tribue Thompson), four grandchildren, seven great grandchildren, and a host of family and friends.
